(Check one or both, as applicable.)

- ☐ (1) I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by clear and convincing evidence as to danger that:

Defendant has been a legal permanent resident since 1997. He has one prior felony conviction from 2003 (Misprision of a Felony). Defendant owns a residence in Mexico, although he resides in the United States. Defendant travels to Mexico one to three times per month. The probable cause statement documents a seizure of 18 pounds of methamphetamine during a drug transaction set up by Defendant, where Defendant was arrested at the scene of the transaction. The probable cause statement avows that a firearm was found in the vehicle that drove Defendant to the location of the transaction, although the submitted evidence does not establish (for the purposes of this limited hearing) actual possession of the weapon by Defendant. The complaint does not contain a charge in violation of 18 USC Section 924(c). For the reasons stated on the record, Defendant is detained as a flight risk.

The Court incorporates by reference the findings in the Pretrial Services Report which were reviewed by the Court at the time of the hearing in this matter.
